We Satellites

Singapore's premier band is back with their third studio effort. Like a shining light for our local bands, Warner has been promoting the band's album really furiously. The band is even on an official tour on our little island. These guys have been around for some time and they really do deserve all the recognition they're getting right now.

The album is a bit mellow with the first single Save Our Souls setting the tone. But fret not, there are upbeat tracks like Hail To The Friends, The Slaves And The Digits and the title track. It's a wholesome album and we expect the same from other local bands too.

Verdict | Good.
